II. Test cases

    A. Data hoarder

    B. Argument tweeter

    C. Internet isolation

    D. People Ratings Agencies

III. Harms of informational privacy violation

    A. Methodology

        1. The problem with starting from privacy

        2. Focus on harmful violations of privacy

    B. The concept of harm

        1. Harm principle

        2. Definition of harm

            a. Setback of interest

                i. Interests

                    1. Well-being

                ii. Setbacks

                    1. Death

                    2. Other problems

            b. Wrongfulness

            c. Method

            d. Odd cases

                i. Harmless rights violations

                ii. Hurting without harming

        1. Exploiting weaknesses

        2. Location

            a. Car

            b. Phone

                i. Apps

            c. Social media

        3. Threats to autonomy

4. Relationships

    5. Democracy

D. Informational harms -- rights violations

    1. What kind of rights?

        a. Non privacy rights

        b. Right to protected sphere

    2. Accounts of right to protected sphere

        a. Negative Liberty account

            i. Positive liberty

            ii. Negative liberty

            iii. Right to protected sphere

        b. Republican account

            i. Domination

            ii. Right to protected sphere

            iii. Objections

                1. Is collection always domination?

                2. Intrinsic wrongness of privacy invasion

E. Can machines violate privacy?

    1. No. Understanding matters

A. AI bad things